Index Data (Source : Amundi)

Description of the Index

The Strategy Index, net dividends reinvested (dividends net of tax paid by the shares in the index are included in the index calculation), denominated in US dollars (USD), is calculated and published by the index provider MSCI. The Strategy Index, the MSCI World Leveraged x2 Daily Net Index, measures the performance of a strategy which consists of doubling exposure to the MSCI World index. It therefore offers dual exposure – upward or downward – to changes in the MSCI World index.
